

Nestled in the Atlantic Ocean, only 15 miles from the coast of Long Island and Rhode Island, Block Island offers the group tour visitor what does not seem possible anymore... simple relaxation in a startlingly beautiful place. The island is famous for it's miles of beaches, a myriad of outdoor activities, dining opportunities, stores and specialty shops that will satisfy every taste. The nature conservancy has awarded Block Island the designation of "One of the last great places in the Western Hemisphere."
