

Hot Springs

America's First Resort™

Hot Springs literally sprang to life in the 1800's in a Quachita Mountain valley containing a remarkable array of thermal springs. The town has long been and remains a top group destination for good reason. Top-flight attractions include Hot Springs National Park with its famed Bathhouse Row and thermal baths, Garvan Woodland Gardens and a renowned arts community, plus music, magic, lake tours and more. Hot springs boasts an eclectic shopping scene, offering something for everyone. In the late 1800's this community was a hot bed for organized crime offering gambling and bootlegging. This was a popular hangout for Al Capone, Frank Costello, Bugs Moran, Lucky Luciano and other infamous mobsters. It was a safe secluded scenic location for a hide out. Today, it is one of the nation's top group destinations.
